ROCK CREEK DISTRICT

News from the Mining Camps of British Columbia's New Eldorado.

Progress Being Made in the District—Effect of Lease—Settlements Retarded.

(From our own Correspondent.)

McKenneyville, March 2, 1888.—Since I wrote you last there has been another good body of ore found on the Cariboo mineral claim. This claim has been sold to a company from Wardner. They are at work developing as fast as they possibly can. The work is under the supervision of Mr. McKinney, one of the original locators. They started about a month ago to run for the main ledge, with a tunnel, and supposed it would take about 200 feet of tunnel. When they were in 110 feet they struck a fine body of galena and sulphites ore, about four feet wide, that assays up to the hundreds. They have gone through this ledge and expect to strike another body in the main ledge, about 90 feet further on. This discovery only helps to strengthen Mr. McKinney's opinion of the mine. He has had the greatest confidence in this mine from the first, and has more than once made the assertion that if the Cariboo does not make as good a paying mine as any mine he ever had anything to do with it would be useless to prospect for paying quarts in British Columbia. It shows there is plenty of good paying quarts in Rock creek district. All it wants is money to develop it, and then it will not come out second best to any thing that has been discovered in the country. This camp is only in its infancy; yet it is the opinion of all the old prospectors here that there are several mines just as good as the Cariboo, only they have not have not had as much development done on them.

There are several claims now working and all feel satisfied of success. Mr. Jenson has got a good location to the east of the main ledge which makes a good showing. It shows native silver in good paying quantities and without a doubt will prove to be a fine paying mine. Every person here feels confident that the coming summer this will be a good lively camp. That this camp is possessed of merit of its own, without prospectors having to go out to look for capital to work their claims. The monied men will come in to look after the prospecters. Miners are getting $3.50 per day eight hour shifts. All the men in camp are at work. Of course the demand for miners is limited yet, but the day is not far distant when there will be work for men by the hundred.

AT M'KINNEVILLE.

A good many men are expected to go to work soon on Rock Creek sluicing, where they left off last fall.

We have had the finest winter here that any person could wish for. In January we had some very cold weather, on the 7th, the coldest day, the glass registered 20° below. In February the weather has been something lovely, and could not be surpassed in any country as seasonable weather to open up mines, only enough snow to work good all spring.

It is high time that the Government should put the town lots on the market and let people have a chance to build. No person here knows what to do or where to build. So for that reason people who want to go into any business do not feel like putting up improvements on property for which they have not a proper title. As I mentioned in my last letter to you, our mails are very unsatisfactory. It is generally believed here that the Government are holding on to the town property to compel parties who want licenses to keep hotels to go on the site and give them an enormous price for their lots. One party made an application and sent in a petition to the Government in August to get a license to keep hotel. He had his petition signed by over forty-five miners from this camp. He tried to find out if he could build on the town site, but could not find anything satisfactory, so he made arrangements with Mr. McKinney to build on the Cariboo claim, he built a good house, and now they say they cannot grant him a license. He was here before any town was ever mentioned and his application was in before the site was located. If we had not been fortunate enough to find a man that had courage enough to come in and take chances on building a good house to accommodate strangers arriving we would not have a place for travelers to put up at. It is no credit for a man to come to a camp after it is opened up and a clear show to make money. They have all things in readiness and no chances to take. Why not give the man who comes in and helps to take the chances of losing all he has at stake instead of doing as has been done here.

Mr. Nicholson, the recorder, is starting out an exploring party to look out the most practicable route for a wagon road from this camp to the foot of Okanagan lake. It will be a great benefit to the miner, the farmer, the trader and every person else who may have reason to come in and out of here.

THE FARMERS ON KETTLE RIVER

and Okanagan are all making preparations to put in large crops this spring in anticipation of the good outlook for this camp. Heretofore the few farmers in this district could not raise anything for market for they could get no sale; but this spring things have quite a different aspect in view. Now when there are so many people from the East and other places, coming into the country looking for land to take up for farms and homes, the cannot do better than take a look at either of the above named places where there are any number of places that will be easily improved and a good chance for a good market for all they can raise. Of course this part of the country has the same drawbacks as are to be found in all the other arable parts of British Columbia. Land monopolists, who make application for grazing and wild lands to the extent of twenty thousand acres and upwards, when in reality a great portion of these lands are good agricultural lands. Instead of allowing these valuable lands being settled up by emigrants and good thrifty farmers, they are locked up by the land monopolist and paid for to the Government at only a nominal rental per acre, thereby enriching the big cattle man and making the immigrant who is looking for a home and a place to sleep improve the country elsewhere. The big cattle king has got the best sections all locked up in this kind of a fraud. Therefore, the man who wishes to make a home and improvements has got to look for other scenes, and the land lays here unimproved, his order to benefit one or two to the detriment of the whole community. The time is near at hand when one or two monopolists can have the whole country and fence up the public highways as they have been doing in this vicinity. The time is not far distant when the people will make their voice heard in this matter. No one man has the right to fence up the public thoroughfare and compel people traveling to put up and take down fences, simply because he holds a petty government office and owns twenty thousand acres of land and a few hundred head of cattle. This little corner of British Columbia gives a person just as good an example of Irish landlordism as can be imagined. I doubt if in any place outside of Ireland you can see any more of it carried out than is here at Osoyoos Lake.

PIONEER.

THE SEABIRD MURDER.

Scene in the House Yesterday—What Captain Moore Has to Say.

In the Legislature yesterday, after Mr. Humphreys had moved for information in respect to the seizure in Alaskan waters of the steamer Teaser—now in the possession of Turner, Beeton & Co., and called the "Rainbow"—and also for correspondence, &c., between the Superintendent of Police and other parties regarding the murder of the Seabird crew, a scene occurred which varied for a few moments the customary serenity of the government benches. Captain Moore, father of Henry Moore, the pilot of the Seabird and one of those who were murdered, arose in the gallery, and pointing to Messrs. Turner and Davie, said "There they are," and at once left the chamber. It was not very clear what Captain Moore meant and as the incident has caused considerable comment, that gentleman has called upon us and made the following explanation:

"I regret that my feelings got the better of my discretion, and that I was provoked to speak aloud in the gallery. But two of the members of the Government have shown so much apathy in the Seabird case, and apparently such a strong antipathy to myself and family, that it is but natural that I should feel deeply in the matter. The Indians under arrest made a partial confession before the investigation, and it is my firm belief that if they had not been interfered with they would have made a full confession. I have ascertained by my own exertions that the bodies were not burned, as stated by some of the witnesses, but that two of them were anchored in the bay. I also know that there were four men murdered, and not three, as always contended by the authorities heretofore. I have always believed that four men were murdered. The exertions of the Attorney-General's department have not, in my opinion, been such as they should have been considering that a wholesale massacre took place within 190 miles of this city. My son was exiled from the land of his birth, although he had committed no crime, and was murdered with his companions when working for the support of his family. Naturally I feel deeply the treatment he has received by those high in authority, and the fact that I was betrayed into giving vent to my honest feelings from the gallery of the House will, I think, be overlooked by all who know the whole facts of the two cases referred to.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon, Mrs. R. Cunningham and Two Indians Drowned.

The steamer Barbara Boscowits arrived from Port Simpson this morning with the sad intelligence of the drowning near the mouth of the Skeena river of Reverend A. H. Sheldon, Mrs. R. Cunningham and two Indians. Mr. Henry Saunders received a letter from Mr. W. H. Dempster, stating that on the 20th February, whilst the party were on their way to Metlakahtla on a missionary expedition, the canoe split in two near the mouth of Skeena river and all were thrown into the water. One Indian succeeded in swimming ashore but the others met with a watery grave. All the Indians were out searching for the bodies, but up to the time the steamer left only one body, that of an Indian, had been recovered. Mrs. Cunningham was the wife of R. Cunningham, the well-known trader, saw mill owner and canner of Port Essington. The mouth of the Skeena River is situated fifteen miles south of Metlakahtla. A high wind, it is stated was blowing when the canoe attempted to make the last named settlement. When out a short distance the canoe shipped a little water. Its occupants moved from their sitting posture and placed themselves on the side of the canoe, when the fatal result already recorded took place by the canoe splitting in two.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon was an enthusiastic earnest worker in the missionary work. He has many friends in this city as well as in New Westminster, in which place he was well known and highly esteemed, who will regret to learn of his sad, untimely end. A mission church was recently erected by him at Metlakahtla in which he took great interest and pride as the result of his labors amongst the aborigines. The sad accident cast a gloom on the whole of the north coast. General sympathy is expressed for Mr. Cunningham in his sudden bereavement.

The Mission to Ottawa.

The secret of the mission of the Hon. John Robson to Ottawa last session was revealed this afternoon by the production of a return asked for some time ago by the opposition. The return states that among other subjects that engaged the attention of the high commissioner to the federal capital were the following: The province asked that the dyking lands on the lower Fraser should be surrendered to the province, which was acceded to by the Dominion Government. The question of subsidies to provincial railways was considered but nothing definite was promised. Two county court judges were promised the province for the present, and the boundary question was discussed. A revenue cutter was asked for to prevent smuggling between the sound and our coasts, especially by Indians. The deep sea fisheries will be further explored, and the province will bear a portion of the expense of the Metlakahtla commission. An immigration agent was promised to Vancouver. In regard to the Behring Sea question the Dominion Government were averse to mixing it up with the fisheries disputes settled by the Washington commission and it remains in statuo quo.

OUR OWN COUNTRY.

The Canadian and the American Northwest Contrasted Climatically To-Day.

News From Quebec—Sir George Stephen makes An Extensive Real Estate Purchase.

QUEBEC HAPPENINGS.

Quebec, March 13—Sir Geo. Stephen has purchased for $15,000 the extensive property at Mount Carmel, known as the Ross estate.

Rev. Norman, the new rector for the Cathedral, arrived to-day from Montreal and was welcomed by a large deputation.

A large quantity of fish and game, consigned from Montreal, has been seized by the fish and game club.

A hurricane has been blowing here for the last twenty-four hours, doing considerable damage, overturning street railway sleighs and breaking up a large portion of the ice bridge.

At the sitting of the labor commission yesterday the subjects under consideration were the injury done by the ship laborers' society to the port of Quebec, owing to its objectionable rule. Mr. Wm. Rae, manager for Messrs. Price & Co., testified that their business had been forced to other ports, where their vessels can be loaded for half what it costs at Quebec.

CANADIAN WEATHER.

Winnipeg, Man., March 13—The Canadian Northwest has again escaped the severe storm that has been raging throughout the American Northwest, and which has been attended in the east with such disastrous results. The weather report for to-day is as follows: New Westminster, B. C., fine, 45 above zero; Donald, B. C., 30 above, raining hard; Banff, N. W. T., 20 above and cloudy; Calgary, N. W. T., 35 above and cloudy; Medicine Hat, 35 above and clear, light southwest wind; Swift Current, 40 above and cloudy, southwest wind; Moosejaw, at zero, clear and fine; Broadview, 5 above, clear and fine; Winnipeg, 10 above, cloudy, southeast wind.

THE INDIANS RESTLESS.

Winnipeg, March 13—For some weeks alarming reports have been received here from the West that the Indians are very restless owing to the neglect of the Government in furnishing supplies, and that there was serious danger of an uprising unless food was at once forwarded. The mounted police claim to be prepared to put down any revolt, but at the same time admit that there will be trouble unless immediate relief is given. The settlers are alarmed.

A TRIFLING AFFAIR.

Montreal, March 13—A good deal of indignation was caused here to-day by the letter signed by a Frenchman in to-day's Minerve, finding fault with Vice-Consul Schwabe, for flying the tri-color at half-mast, out of respect to the dead Emperor. Schwab defends himself by saying he received his instructions from the Consul-General at Quebec.

GREENWAY GAINING STRENGTH.

Winnipeg, March 13—The government candidate was elected at North Dufferin yesterday by a large majority over a former member the Norquay Government.

AMERICAN DISPATCHES.

SHIP STRANDED.

San Francisco, March 12—A dispatch from London this morning to the Merchant's Exchange says that the ship Sierenia which stranded on Saturday is fast breaking up. The captain's wife and children and thirteen of the crew landed safely. A life boat while headed for shore capsized and three men were drowned.

BLIZZARDS IN NEW YORK STATE.

Albany, March 13—It has been snowing and blowing continuously since 8 p. m. Sunday, and all trains that have been sent out from here to New York have been snowed up.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED.

New York, March 13—Nothing is being done on the Stock Exchange this morning. The wind continues high and snow is still drifting. The following resolution has been unanimously adopted by the New York Stock Exchange: Resolved, That it is the sense of the members at present that all dealing, so far as possible, be suspended, and that all deliveries go over until to-morrow, March 14th.

New York, March 13—Storm which commenced to moderate about 1 o'clock this morning broke forth again with increasing fury a few hours later and it is playing sad havoc on every side.

The produce, coffee and cotton exchanges are adjourned for the day. Last night was the worst ever experienced along the banks of the Hudson and along the West Chester shore of the sound. The mercury at 2 o'clock this morning at Dobb's ferry on the Hudson and at Port Chester on the sound marked zero, and a gale swept with fearful velocity. Railroad traffic is entirely blocked. Thousands of men are at work digging out the track.

SAFE ROBBERY.

Phœnix, A. T., March 13—The safe of the Maricopa and Phœnix Railroad Co. was blown open last night and about $1200 appropriated. No clue to the robbers.

$20,000 HORSE.

Santa Rosa, Cal., March 13—The celebrated trotting stallion Antees was sold yesterday by the Stock Breeding Association to a Kentuckian for $20,000.

POSTMISTRESS FOR W. T.

Washington, D. C., March 13—Mrs. Bridget J. Walsh has been appointed postmistress at Oakdale, Whitman Co., W. T., to succeed S. K. Nanuski, resigned. M. D. Link, appointed postmaster at this office on Feb. 13th, declined to serve. Asther J. Taylor was to-day appointed postmaster at Shelton, Mason Co., W. T., in place of Daniel D. McDonald, who has moved away.

A FAMILY POISONED.

Mason City, Iowa, March 13—On Saturday evening as the family of H. L. Brown, consisting of his wife, six children and a hired man, were seated around the supper table they were all taken violently sick and in less than an hour Brown and one of his children died. The others are very low, and it is thought they cannot recover. The matter will be investigated at once. It is believed they were poisoned.

FIGURES TO DEATH OF NEW YORK.

New York, March 13—Most people who got to their business yesterday were unable to get home last night. The hotels were strained to their utmost and stores and offices were converted into sleeping apartments for the benefit of the employees. Many girls were compelled to accept such quarters. The majority of theatres were closed. A milk famine is threatened if the blockade is not cleared soon.

(Geo. D. Barrymore, a well known importer and dealer in toys, at No. 2 Water street, was found frozen stiff in a snow bank on 7th avenue. Barrymore lived with his wife and family on Osborne Flats, corner of 33d and Broadway. He started for his office down town yesterday, and it is supposed he became exhausted and dropped by the way unnoticed.

The body of Annie Halpin Fisher, aged about 25, was found last night frozen stiff in a hallway.

TERRIBLE STORM ON THE ATLANTIC.

New York, March 12—The furious storm which broke over the Atlantic coast early last evening, prostrating the telegraph wires and causing destruction all around. The storm in the city to-day is almost unparalelled. Gardens and conservatories are suffering great damage.

THE DECISION AWAITED.

Kansas City, Mo., March 13—Judge Gresham's decision on the liability of railroad refusing Burlington freight is anxiously awaited here by both railroaders and men. As an indication of the prevailing uneasiness it may be said that several roads have been refusing since Saturday afternoon to accept perishable freight, such as live stock, packing house produce, etc. Among these roads were the Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Fort Scott and Gulf. Two days more of this embargo would close down all packing houses in the city and throw 15,000 men out of employment.

THE READING STRIKE.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 12—It is stated that the Reading strike will be officially declared off this week and that the strikers will be allowed to apply as individuals for old places.

SNOW STORM.

New York, March 12—Snow is falling heavily. The horse cars are entirely unable to move.

BLIZZARD IN MICHIGAN.

Negaunee, Mich., March 12—Two days' blizzard is just ending have been the worst of the year for railroad men. The Chicago and Northwestern train due here at 1 o'clock yesterday, stuck at Masson and is still in the drift with the engineer dead.

ANOTHER TRAIN ACCIDENT.

Detroit, March 12—The passenger train on the Pennsylvania road collided with a heavy freight train near Huntington this morning, and both trains were wrecked. The engineer and fireman of the passenger train were instantly killed, and the freight brakeman and a Pullman passenger were seriously hurt. Other passengers escaped with severe shakes.

Detroit, March 12—The wreck is simply colossal. The express train was running forty miles an hour. The sleepers were smashed to pieces. The injured brakeman has since died. Three passengers are reported as injured. Estimated loss caused by the $75,000.

THE STORM IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, March 13—11 a. m.—Communication with the East is entirely cut off, all wires being down.

CRIME IN CUBA.

Key West, March 13—Crime is still rampant in Cuba and disastrous fires, supposed to be caused by bandits, are occurring on many sugar plantations in the province of Matanzas. The loss is considerable and much live stock was burned, also sugar sheds, houses, etc. It will cripple the sugar crop considerably.

Last Friday three highwaymen captured the son of a rich planter a short distance from Havana and sent word to the boy's father that they would keep him until a ransom of $10,000 was paid.

MORE NEWS OF THE SNOW STORM.

Utica, N. Y., March 13—The storm has abated but the extraordinary fall of snow completely blocks all travel. The fast mail and Atlantic Express due in New York early this morning are at the depot. No trains arrived to-day and none expected. There has been only a partial resumption of traffic in this city. The elevated railroad trains are running only at intervals and are wholly inadequate for the requirements. The wind is still blowing furiously and the snow drifting badly being piled in many places six to nine feet high.

Chicago reports to the Signal Service state that at Albany, N. Y., the mercury last night marked four degrees above zero, New York 10 above.

BALTIMORE'S EXPERIENCE.

Baltimore, March 13—For the first time in the existence of the telegraph Baltimore is cut off from communication with New York and Washington for over 24 hours from Sunday night. Not only were the wires down, but hundreds of poles also. The wind blew a gale and the thermometer fell twenty degrees in ten hours.

BUSINESS PARALYZED.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 13—Business on the Pennsylvania railway between this city and Philadelphia is completely paralyzed. No trains have arrived from the east since last night. Everything is blockaded with snow. All trains are snow bound and there is little prospect of their getting out for 24 hours.

EAST RIVER FROZEN OVER.

New York, March 13—The Stock Exchange adjourned at noon to-day and the loan market at 12:30 p. m. Several persons, it is reported, perished in the city last night. Communication with Washington and all points south of New York are still entirely cut off. No surface cars are running. East River is frozen hard this morning and many Brooklynites walked across to New York.

CABLE NEWS.

FIERCE GALES.

London, March 12—A fierce southwestern gale is blowing and numerous casualties are feared in St. George's and the English channels.

RIVER OVERFLOWING.

Berne, March 12—The river Aar has overflowed its banks at this point and the lower quarter of the town is submerged.

SULLIVAN AND MITCHELL.

London, March 12—Sullivan and Mitchell arrived in London this morning. Sullivan left for Liverpool a short time afterwards.

FREDERICK III.

Berlin, March 13—Emperor Frederick passed a good night. He is fairly well.

LATE SPEAKER PLUMB.

Shortly after THE TIMES had gone to press on Monday evening a special dispatch was received from Ottawa announcing the very sudden and entirely unexpected death that day at his residence in Niagara of the Hon. JOSIAH BURR PLUMB, Speaker of the Senate. The deceased was an American by birth, being a native of the nutmeg State, Connecticut, where, in East Haven, he was born in on the 25th of March, 1816; thus he was in the 72nd year of his age. Prior to his coming to Canada he was engaged in banking and commercial pursuits in the Eastern and Central States. He came to the Niagara district when the Welland canal was under construction with the late SAM ZIMMERMAN and other prominent contractors, many of whom subsequently located in the country and became active, energetic, enterprising Canadian citizens. The late Senator in his younger days was what many would regard as a handsome man—especially so with the fair sex. In his elder days he was a person of commanding appearance. He threw in his lot with the Conservative party. It is supposed that he was largely influenced in his action in this respect by his association with the Street family of Chippawa, a village some distance above the Falls. Some 40 years ago he married one of the ladies of that family. The late Mr. T. C. STREET was a prominent politician and a power in the vicinity of the Falls. He induced Mr. PLUMB to offer himself for the pocket borough of Niagara in 1874, where he was successful in defeating the Hon. J. G. CURRIE by a vote of 336 to 306. The latter was a Liberal and Niagara was always considered to be a reliable Tory stronghold. Mr. PLUMB was unseated, but again re-elected by a majority of 100 over Mr. J. S. BROWN. In 1878 Mr. PATRICK HUGHES, of Toronto, defeated the now famous "sweet singer of Niagara" by a majority of two, but on being unseated for bribery, the seat was awarded to Mr. PLUMB. The Redistribution Act of 1882 merged Niagara into the Electoral District of Lincoln. Mr. PLUMB was thus left without a constituency. He sought refuge in North Wellington, another supposedly strong Conservative constituency. After one of the most spirited contests Mr. JAMES MCMULLEN, Liberal, carried the constituency by a majority of 20, the vote being 1,911 to 1891. Shortly after his defeat in 1882, Sir JOHN called Mr. PLUMB to the Senate. When the present parliament was opened last year Senator PLUMB was elected Speaker in that chamber. In the early part of the present session he took up his residence in the buildings where one of his daughters discharged the duties of hostess for her father, which she did in a manner at once princely and with no sparing hand. The late Senator was a keen debater, a fluent speaker. Scarcely a subject came up for discussion on which he did not address the House. In this respect his loquacity became tiresome. He was possessed of more than average ability and respected by those who were familiar with him. The Senate had adjourned some days previously till the 20th, and the Commons, on motion of Sir JOHN MACDONALD, seconded by the Hon. Mr. LAURIER, adjourned its session of yesterday out of respect for the memory of the deceased.

ON WHICH SIDE?

If the Legal Professions Society of the province is as jealous of its honor as it pretends to be, it should take cognizance of the conduct of the Hon. THEO. DAVIE. This gentleman, if not guilty of unprofessional conduct, has done something which looks very much like it. If he has not accepted a double fee he has approached so close to it that people of ordinary intelligence can scarcely recognize the fine distinction. The sworn defender of the Crown and prosecutor of criminals, he is retained by an alleged Indian murderer to defend him. He is at the same time counsel for the prosecution and the defence. He is sworn on one hand to mete out even justice, while on the other he is paid to evade and frustrate it. He represents at the QUEEN and the criminal. Could anything be more anomalous? If this kind of conduct is going to be tolerated and all semblance of propriety and decency ignored, the sooner the people know it the better. If our government and our administration of justice is to be converted into a farce we had better not sanction it by our indifference, that is if we are going to pretend to have a government like other civilized communities.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

Hon. Mr. DUNSMUIR and Mr. SEMLIN, who have been suffering from severe colds, appeared in the Assembly yesterday in their wonted condition. In fact, the not very young gentleman, who is commonly called the President of the Council, was exquisite in the arrangement of his toilet, and looked even better than usual.

It is reported that following in the steps of Messrs. TURNER and BAKER, other supporters of the government are formulating demands upon the administration. Vancouver Island having been given away, it is wrong in the opinion of the people to leave Queen Charlotte Island out in the cold, and without some one to look after it. There are some people who are never satisfied. Like the horseleech's daughter they continually cry "give, give!"

The junior for Esquimalt partially squared accounts with the Chief Commissioner yesterday for opposing his Ballot Act Admendment Bill. The versatile retired editor and proprietor blew cold on the measure, which, with a combination of other circumstances, caused it to be laid over. The danger of Mr. HIGGINS becoming a member of the opposition is daily becoming more marked, and we would therefore advise the government to take him into a caucus—with the accent on the "cus"—and to make some kind of a settlement with him, because there is no question about it, if he gets them in a tight place, he will "cinch" them.

A sensation, almost amounting to a panic, has been produced among the legislators by the announcement that the House is not legally in session. The question naturally arises, can the members draw their sessional allowances, and to those who have their watches and Sunday clothes in pawn this is a matter of serious moment. It is true they can get all the stationery they want while the Assembly is in session, but it would be very inconvenient to have to pass packages of writing material over the bar as collateral or to have to pay their railway fares with fools-cap. This habit of making premiers according to mock parliament rules may prove disastrous in the end and ultimately tend to increase the demands upon the B. C. Benevolent Society. This in turn will have the effect of reviving those Sunday concerts and kegs of beer. The evil which some men can do is terrible to contemplate.

With the election of Mr. R. P. Roblin for North Dufferin, to succeed Dr. Wilson, late Provincial Secretary for Manitoba, Mr. Greenway's majority now is reported to be thirteen.

Changes in the cabinet from Ottawa are reported as being probable. Sir Charles Tupper realizing that Sir John has not kept his promise to abdicate in his favor will seek refuge in the Chief Commissionership in London and will be succeeded by his son Mr. C. H. Tupper, of Pictou. Other changes are predicted.

Just as was to be expected, the leader of the government has, through his organ, disavowed governmental responsibility for the new licensing bill, and has intimated that the measure will be advocated by the Hon. Mr. ROBSON in his capacity as a private member. This is equivalent to a declaration that the government is willing to renunciate its constitutional prerogative to originate legislation affecting taxation and revenue, and is a confession of weakness and moral cowardice that—it would be mere affectation to deny—we were fully prepared to see exemplified by the Premier, whenever it was politic for him to do so. As a government measure, the new license bill would pass into law; with the government supporters free to oppose it, it is almost certain to be defeated. Mr. ROBSON evidently is aware that he can only retain office by shirking the responsibilities of office, and has too much love for the loaves and fishes to make a brave attempt, as the head of a government that has a majority of two to one, to carry his principles into practice. If the great aim of a statesman when taking office, is to give effect to principles which he advocated in opposition and in private life, and not for the mere salary which office yields, will some person tell us what principle the present Premier is prepared to stand or fall by as a minister?

An associated press dispatch from Ottawa states that the British Columbia members are urgently pressing the government to obtain a settlement of the Behring Sea dispute, as from the Pacific coast reports received here, public indignation has reached the high water mark, and the seats in parliament of the representatives from British Columbia will be jeopardized if they do not effect something tangible before long. It is learned on authority that the credentials of the British plenipotentiaries to Washington were such as to allow them to deal with every subject at present in dispute between the United States and Canada and that they were anxious that the Behring Sea dispute should be dealt with by the commission. The whole matter, however, stopped short when Secretary Bayard informed the commission that the credentials of himself and his colleagues empowered them only to deal with the North American fisheries. It will be gratifying news to their constituents to learn that B. C. members are at last beginning to realize the necessity for prompt and decisive action on their part in their relation to the government and its general policy towards this province. They are all "Sir John's men," and against the Conservative chieftain they dare not raise their voice, not even their little finger, which, with a prominent British Columbian, is claimed to possess wonderful virtues, especially so when the mechanical majority are expected to follow their leader like a flock of sheep jumping a ditch.

The British Columbia Gazette contains an application to Hon. F. G. VERNON, Commissioner of Lands and Works, for the purchase of 800 acres of land in Osoyoos division of Yale District. The applicant is Hon. F. G. VERNON, Commissioner of Lands and Works. The enemies of the Hon. FORBES—and we are glad to know they are not numerous—might be inclined to say: "Of course, that application will be granted without question. Hon. Mr. VERNON, the minister, has such unlimited confidence in Hon. Mr. VERNON, the applicant—so much, in fact, that the former would not support any ministry of which the latter was not a member—that no questions will be asked, and the 800 acres in Osoyoos district will be transferred by the Chief Commissioner to the Big Rancher with more than his customary courtesy and civility, and with greater expedition than usually characterizes the department of which he is the conspicuous head." But the enemies of Hon. FORBES G. VERNON (the minister) would be egregiously in error if they imagined that he would make things comfortable for the Hon. FORBES G. VERNON (the rancher), if by so doing the strict letter of the law was departed from in the slightest degree. As a politician he might feel disposed to favor his most powerful supporter, and especially one who entertains so high a regard for his talents and executive ability, but the independent spirit of Hon. FORBES G. VERNON, the rancher, would scorn to receive any petty advantage, and he would insist upon being treated the same as other men. Thus the native modesty and strict integrity of the simple-minded rancher from Okanagan would preserve unsullied the good name and high character of the patrician statesman, who fills with so much credit and ability the high office of Chief Commissioner. If Hon. FORBES G. VERNON, the rancher, receives the land, as we hope he may, it will not be through any connivance on the part of the Hon. FORBES G. VERNON the minister. The latter is not a Pooh Bah!

THE EXAMINER'S REPRESENTATIVE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

I read in the San Francisco Examiner a letter stating that I asked a representative of that paper to join me in a plot to rob a barber shop. Nothing of the sort ever was spoken that I know of to any one. Some time ago there was a young man in the barber shop that I was working in, to get shaved, and I waited on him. When finished he went out and I stood at the door. He returned and said: "Is this the principal street in the city?" I informed him that it was. He asked, "Have you resided here long?" I told him about a year. He says, "How do you get along with the boss?" I said that I can't complain, but that I was going to quit soon and go to work over on the corner in a new shop. He says, "That is a pretty old safe they have there; do they keep much money in it?" I said I don't know how much there is, perhaps a hundred or two. This is all the conversation we had on the subject, and I dismissed it from my mind altogether until I saw it in the San Francisco Examiner. Being that he is out of my reach and of the law, I am helpless. The public can judge for themselves.

Shipping Sugar East.

The California sugar market is excited, and two companies are preparing to cut rates. The California Refinery made an all-round reduction of a quarter of a cent, the American company following suit. The cut made by the California company is supposed to be incidental to a shipment of sugar made over the Canadian Pacific. During the past two years the company has not resorted to shipping sugar any considerable distance, but 75,000 pounds were sent to St. Paul, Minnesota. The shipment was on the steamer Mexico, to be transhipped at Vancouver.

Quartz Mining Boom.

Mr. M. S. Davys, of Nanaimo, who negotiated the sale of the Bonanza quartz mine on Cargoosh creek, states that an experienced quartz mining engineer will arrive in a few weeks time to assume charge of this mine on behalf of the English Company. Also that the work of opening it up will be carried on with the utmost vigor, it being anticipated that over 200 men will be employed during the coming summer. Mr. Davys held a seventh interest in this mine, which has been bonded on most favorable terms.

How Men Die.

If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many, however, have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened Lungs will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life. Upon the first symptoms of a Cough, Cold or any trouble of the Throat or Lungs, give that old and well known remedy—Boschee's German Syrup, a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home." *

Sixty-two vessels are on their way and chartered to load at ports in British Columbia and on Puget Sound.

British ship Camana, 598 tons, Captain Gordan, sailed from London for Victoria on 14th November.

British ship Titania, 837 tons, Captain Dunn, sailed from London for Victoria on Jan. 18th.

German bark Janbaas, 939 tons, Capt. Abken, sailed from Liverpool on Jan 4th, 1888.

The steamship Abyssinia's freight for China consisted of 30,658 sks of flour, 3450 bales of cotton, 12,500 shingles, 100,000 ft. of lumber and a large amount of miscellaneous freight.

Nearly all the Arctic and Okhotsk fleets of whalers have gone on the summer cruise in the northern water. The only whalers remaining in San Francisco out of a fleet of forty-five vessels are the steamer Jesse H. Freeman, the barks Arnolds, Dawn and Thomas Pope, the brig Hidalgo and the schooner Page.

The British ship Celeste Burrill has been ordered into quarantine to guard against yellow fever and cholera. She is from Port Aliva, Peru.

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practising physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases. —M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which grew worse and settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Saulsburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine, and was cured. —Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind. ‡‡

PROVINCIAL ASSEMBLY.

Proceedings of the Second Session of the Fifth Legislature.

MONDAY, March 12th.

Mr. Speaker took the chair at 2:15 p.m. Prayers were read by the Rev. D. Fraser.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Duck presented a petition from the Matsqui Land Company (limited) against the repeal of the Sumas Dyking Act.

Mr. Martin presented a petition from Mr. Sword against the repeal of the same and the Hon. Mr. Turner presented one from Messrs. Drake, Jackson & Helmcken on the same subject.

Mr. Orr presented a petition from Vancouver and New Westminster praying the legislature for measures of protection to miners.

The petition of the Presbytery of British Columbia requesting action on the part of the legislature to restrict the liquor traffic was received.

PRIVATE BILLS.

Col. Baker, chairman of the private bills committee, reported the Nicola Mining Company's bill.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said before proceeding to the next order of business he would like to ask the Provincial Secretary when he proposed the house should consider the amendments to the constitution referred to in the speech from the throne. There was a proposition also on foot for the bringing out of a colony of crofters. When would this matter be considered.

Hon. Mr. Robson—Negotiations are going on in respect to these subjects. If the Crofter scheme was brought forward it would be done within the next few days. It was not stated in the speech that a scheme would be brought forward, but if one was it would be done shortly. In respect to amendments to the constitution, there had been no promise to bring the matter before the house. It had been simply stated that the house might be asked to consider whether experience had not revealed defects in the constitution. The matter was under consideration, but he was not positive the amendments would be considered this session.

RETURNS ASKED FOR.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys asked the Chief Commissioner when the papers relating to Quesnelle Dam Company, the Cherry Creek Mining Company and the Thompson river bridge and Victoria court house would be brought down. In the first case it was over a month since they had been asked for and nearly as long in the other cases.

Hon Mr. Vernon—Soon as possible.

PRECIOUS METALS.

Hon. Mr. Davie brought down papers and correspondence in relation to minerals and precious metals in the railway belt referred to in His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor's speech.

THE TEASER'S ARREST.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys moved for all correspondence whatsoever passed between the Superintendent of Police, the Hon. Attorney-General, and any other persons or person, touching upon or relating to the pursuit and arrest of the British steamer Teaser in Alaskan waters by the provincial authorities, in November, 1885.

The mover did not apprehend any opposition to this resolution. The correspondence in relation to this matter, however, told of a very serious miscarriage of justice which did not reflect a great deal of credit on the authorities of the province. In respect to the steamer Teaser, if the arrest and return had been done fair and above board, as the saying was, well and good, but he should like to see the papers.

Hon. Mr. Davie said there was no correspondence in the possession of his department or any officer of the government on the subject. It was purely a matter between private parties.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys said it would do no harm to pass the resolution anyway (although he had to accept the explanation) in case it should afterwards transpire that there was some correspondence in the hands of some officer of the government.

THE "SEABIRD" MURDER.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys moved for all correspondence whatsoever, passed between the Superintendent of Police, the Hon. Attorney-General, and any other person or persons, touching upon or relating to the alleged murder of Henry Moore, and others on the schooner "Seabird," in 1886.

[When the resolution had been read a party who was recognized as Captain Moore, father of the deceased Henry Moore rose in the gallery and struck the railing violently. Mr. Speaker called "order." The captain then walked, towards the exit from the gallery, but turning shook his fist in a dramatic manner towards the government benches saying, "there are the two of them, Turner and that Theo. Davie." Mr. Speaker directed the sergeant-at-arms to proceed to the gallery and preserve order.]

Hon. Mr. Humphreys said this was a very painful matter to him, and did not wish to say a great deal about it. The acting Attorney-General was placed in a very delicate position, and he fully sympathized with him, as, figuratively speaking, he was compelled to say one thing one day, and the next day claim the reverse, as on the one hand he was the acting Attorney-General and prosecuting Attorney for the Crown in the Seabird murder case, and on the other hand he was the acknowledged attorney for defending the prisoners accused of the murder. He could not see how such a state of things could be allowed. It was the first instance of the kind he had ever heard of in his career. The family and friends of the murdered man felt that sufficient had not been done to ferret out the murder, and he therefore thought it would be better to have the papers brought down in order to avert suspicion.

Hon. Mr. Davie said he was much obliged to the honorable gentleman for his sympathy, but he did not need it on this occasion. He would be very glad to accede under all ordinary circumstances to the granting of any information asked for by the public, but in this case he would have to deny the propriety of granting such a request as this. A father was mourning the loss of his son and naturally thought that a sufficient effort had not been made to bring the murderers to justice. He was carried away by his feelings. However, there were now three persons in prison awaiting trial for this murder, and to produce the information and papers which had led to their arrest would be to prejudice either the case for the prosecution or for the defence. The mover of the resolution, Captain Moore, or any of his friends, were at liberty to come and inspect the papers, but general publicity would be denied.

Mr. Orr, seconder of the resolution, said that the statement of the honorable acting Attorney-General was quite satisfactory to him. When he seconded the resolution he was not aware that there were parties awaiting trial. He desired that the resolution might be withdrawn.

Hon. Mr. Beaven asked if it was correct as reported on the streets that the Crown Prosecutor was employed by the men who are now in jail to defend them.

Hon. Mr. Davie said that before he was asked to take the position he now held he had accepted retainers on behalf of two of the prisoners. He had withdrawn his retainer from one on account of the separate lines of defence adopted and he

BEECHER

On Advertising Doctors.

"I am glad the doctor cured him; I am glad the doctor put it into the paper that he could cure him. And if any doctor is certain that he can cure such diseases and don't put it into the paper, I am sorry. What a pity it would have been had this doctor came to town with his wealth of science and experience and gone away leaving him uncured! What a pity it would have been if he had been so prejudiced against advertising as to read the responsible certificates of the doctor and give him the go-by as a quack! What are newspapers for if not to circulate information? What more valuable information can a newspaper give than to tell a sick man where he can be cured? If a man has devoted his life and labor to the study of a special class of diseases, the necessity of saying so becomes all the more pressing. His duty to advertise becomes imperious. A really able man, whatever may be his gifts, makes a great mistake if he fails to use those gifts through want of advertising.

The above extract from an able article by the Rev. Mr. Beecher embodies a sound view of the subject of advertising. Suppose the Drs. Darrin had come to the city and not advertised, who would know of their presence? Who would know of the following almost miraculous cures had they not put their testimonials in the paper? Testimonials are almost daily received from far and near. The following few speak volumes for the doctors:

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

MR. EDITOR—DEAR SIR: For nearly a year have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism and was so bad as to be unable to sit upon a chair or to get around, and suffered tortures indescribable. I came to the Drs. Darrin, Seattle, W. T., and went under their electro-magnetic treatment and home treatment. I now consider myself entirely cured. Can be referred to at Port Blakely, W. T.

S. F. HOSKINSON.

WONDERFUL RESTORATION OF HEARING

To the public:—My little boy has been deaf since he was 16 months old, and was so deaf that he has never learned to talk and is now 5 years old. I had consulted a great many physicians and none could do anything for him and said that his hearing could never be restored. As a last hope I consulted the Drs. Darrin, at the International hotel, Cherry street, in the case and they said they could cure him. Now, after three treatments, the child's hearing is almost entirely restored, and he seems to be dazed by the sound. Through thankfulness and gratitude to the doctors, and for the sake of others that may be afflicted, I give this testimonial to the public. I can be referred to at the corner of Front and Pine streets, Seattle, W. T.

MRS. MEVIE GEHFORT.

DEFECTIVE VISION CURED IN TWO OPERATIONS.

To the Public: I am not in the habit of puffing advertising doctors, but the wonderful and almost miraculous cure of my affliction prompts me in signing my name to this card for the benefit of others, as well as for the doctor. I am 18 years old, and have been cross eyed since a child, both eyes being turned in so far as to nearly hide the pupil and to seriously interfere with my vision. After two operations by Drs. Darrin of 30 seconds my eye was made perfectly straight. I can be referred to at the Columbia house, Seattle, W. T., and hundreds who know me can vouch for the above.

EULA GREGG.

ASTHMA AND OPIUM HABIT CURED.

Mr. Editor: Dear Sir—I have been troubled with asthma for the past thirteen months, so bad as not to be able to do a day's work, and have suffered the "torments of the damned." The paroxysms were so severe that my life was many times thought to be despaired of. I had tried everything, and a great many physicians. In order to get relief I had to resort to morphine, until I had contracted the habit. I finally consulted the Drs. Darrin, at the International hotel, Cherry street, and they said that I could be cured. I put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment. Now after seven treatments, I am entirely cured of my asthma and the morphine habit, and I have no craving for the drug. I can be referred to at the McKenzie house, foot of Marion street, Seattle, W. T.

H. A. JOHNSON.

DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGING EARS CURED.

To the Public: I have been troubled with deafness and a discharge of one ear for over 20 years and have tried everything. I placed myself under the Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic treatment and I am now cured of my long standing trouble. I cheerfully recommend the doctors to afflicted humanity. Can be referred to at Stuck Junction, W. T.

JOHN WOLFLIN.

OVERFLOWING TEARS CHECKED.

To the Public: For a number of years I have been troubled with over-flowing tears down my checks, and have been operated on a number of times by a physician, without success. Called on the Drs. Darrin, at the International hotel, Cherry street, and they operated on my eye, and I now feel great relief for the first time in fourteen years. I can be referred to at 1381 Railroad Street, Tacoma, W. T.

MRS. A. J. QUENTEL.

DOCTORS' TERMS FOR TREATMENT.

Drs. Darrin can be consulted free at the International Hotel, Cherry street, between Second and Third, and will under no circumstances take a case that they are positive they cannot cure or benefit. Charges are reasonable and the poor treated free from 9 to 10 a.m., Tuesdays and Saturdays.

Office hours from 10 to 5; evenings 7 to 8; Sundays 10 to 12.

They cure permanently all diseases of the genito urinary organs, in either sex, and make a specialty of deafness and catarrh, and also treat successfully all diseases of the nose and throat, eye and ear, etc., as well as all acute and chronic diseases of whatever name or nature, if curable. No cases taken if not.

Cross-eyes straightened in 1 to 10 minutes.

Youthful indiscretion and loss of manhood, seminal weakness, loss of desire of sexual power in man or woman, are successfully treated by the electro-magnetic system.

Most cases can receive home treatment after a few days at the doctors' office.

Drs. Darrin have a system of home treatment for patients living at a distance, thus saving them time and expense, by writing symptoms, age, sex, etc. Inquiries answered. Circulars sent free.

Unlike other physicians who have become eminent in their profession, the doctors' charges are extremely moderate, being only ten dollars for six treatments of such disease, or in that proportion, as the case may require.

Circulars sent free to any address. Inquiries answered.

[Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q.C.]

An Indian was charged with being in possession of an intoxicant. Fined $25 or one month.

Yee Hing Lung, charged with an infraction of the building by-law. Remanded until Friday.

J. M. Johnson, on remand, charged with robbing Mr. M. Young's residence. E. Clark stated he lived for some time in a cabin near a bridge; knew Johnson; had a conversation with prisoner on February 23rd; he came into the cabin about 8:30 on that day and said he committed a burglary; he had raised a window in a house and stole a purse which contained nothing; he had opened a bureau drawer and found two bracelets and a pin; went to prisoner's house with another man and Johnson; in a barn he took some jewelry from a manure heap; examined it and could not tell its value; it was dark in the barn; we lit one match and I saw two pairs of bracelets and a brooch pin.

Johnson was committed for trial on this charge.

FINDLEY & HODNETT.

Cariboo Pioneer Gone.

W. W. Dodd, a native of Liverpool, England, died suddenly at Oakland, California, on Saturday morning of paralysis of the heart. Deceased came to this province in 1863, and proceeded to Cariboo, where he resided until last June. He was stricken with paralysis and went to San Francisco for the benefit of a warmer climate.

ON THE WING.

Mr. M. King, of Comox, is in the city.

Mr. Alex. Ewen, New Westminster, is a guest at the Driard.

Mr. A. McPherson, of the Union Mutual Life, came over from Seattle yesterday.

The Duke of Newcastle is the youngest Duke in England. He is only 23 years of age.

The party of eastern Canadians who came over from Vancouver on Saturday and Sunday, left for the east this morning.

It is now considered certain that Lieut.-Col. O'Brien, M. P. for Muskoka, will command the Wimbledon team this year.

Mr. Jas. McLaughlan, who is in charge of the Victoria Packing Co.'s establishment at River's Inlet, came down on the Boscowitz.

It is asserted that the Duke of Rutland left a will in which he acknowledges a secret marriage by which there was issue. This will cut off the chances for Lord John Manners succeeding his brother in the Dukedom.

Mr. Joseph, Hunter, Chief Engineer and Supt. of the E. & N. Railway, returned on Monday evening from Comox, where he had been superintending work in connection with the new coal fields to be opened there.

Mr. Wm. J. Jones, for some time local correspondent of the Post-Intelligencer at Port Townsend, will occupy a similar position here for that enterprising journal. He arrived last evening and at once entered upon his duties.

Mr. T. J. Potter, Vice-President of the Union Pacific Railway, whose death THE TIMES recorded a few days since, assumed control of the Union last summer with a salary of $80,000 per annum. It is reported that the hard work connected with the position so overtaxed him that his health gave way, resulting in his death at a comparatively young age.

was still retained by the other. The prosecution would go on without his taking any part in it. One of these cases was now in the hands of Mr. Drake, Q.C., and when the time came he [Hon. Mr. D.] would no doubt defend the other, unless the friends of his client chose to release him. He explained in consequence of remarks which had been made in the gallery that deceased Henry Moore was at one time about to be prosecuted for piracy when he went north to escape trial and met his fate. It was a very sad affair but neither himself nor Mr. Turner were to blame. Under ordinary circumstances he would not have referred to the disturbance, but thought it best to do so in the present case.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said if he understood the acting Attorney-General aright this was one of the most remarkable positions for a public man he had ever heard of. He (the acting Attorney-General) stated that notwithstanding that he was the Crown prosecutor, the sworn defender of the Crown, and that it was his duty to proceed against those accused of breaking the law, he was also in the possession of a retainer to defend the supposed murderers. He (Hon. Mr. B.) had heard a good many strange and anomalous things, but this was equal to any of them. The clerk in the Attorney-General's office was to prosecute and his chief to conduct the defense. It was not creditable that the honorable gentleman should place himself in such a position.

Hon. Mr. Davie, in defense, stated that there had been several instances in which attorney-generals had been similarly situated to himself, viz., in the case of the late Hon. Mr. Robertson and Hon. Mr McCreight, who had business with the Crown. He did not think there was any thing requiring him to refrain from practising in his present position. He would hold himself aloof, if possible, in this case, but he did not consider he would be doing anything inconsistent if he did not. According to the view now being advanced no counsel who had a defence against the Crown could accept a position of Crown counsel. He had every reason for believing that long before the cases of these Indians came on for trial, the Attorney-General would have returned to his duties, but whether or not public interests would not suffer by his conducting the defence. Mr. Davie also referred to the case of the Indian Quamlet, for whom he had received a previous retainer, and said that he believed these were the only cases.

Hon. Mr. Beaven—In justice to a gentleman who had passed from our midst, and to a man of the highest honor, he (Hon. Mr. Beaven) would say he did not believe that he (deceased) would be guilty of occupying the anomalous position which the Attorney-General does now.

Hon. Mr. Davie did not know that anything he had said of the deceased required a defence.

Hon. Mr. Beaven—But he never occupied the position of Attorney-General.

Hon. Mr. Davie—Well [having been prompted by the leader of the Government], I would instance another case, that of the Hon. Mr. Walkem, who accepted a retainer from the Dominion Government while a member of the provincial administration.

Hon. Mr. Beaven—Was it a criminal case?

Hon. Mr. Davie—I don't think it was.

Hon. Mr. Beaven—That is altogether a different matter. The Attorney-General is the prosecutor of criminals; he enters court as such. The contention was not that the Attorney-General should not practice at all, but that he should not defend and prosecute criminals at the same time.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys said the acting Attorney-General was responsible for the position he had placed himself in. A parallel to it could not be found in the Dominion, or out of it. He told the house, and through it the country, that they have no right to the information asked for. But what in this case surprised anything he had ever heard of in his life was that the man retained by the murderers, or supposed murderers, to defend them, is the only one who has access to these papers. He is the gentleman who refuses them. He is fee'd to defend these prisoners, and yet is the one to say whether this information of the prosecution shall be refused or not. He (Mr. H.) at one time was in doubt as to whether it was advisable to have this correspondence brought down, but under the circumstances he thought it should. He would be very sorry to do anything which would produce a miscarriage of justice, and if it was thought advisable, after the correspondence was produced, it could be referred to a committee.

The motion was negatived on the following division:

Ayes—Beaven, McLeese, Semlin, Humphreys—4.

Noes—Robson, Davie, Vernon, Allen, John, Duck, Dunsmuir, Turner, Martin, Croft, Thomson, Anderson, Baker, Higgins, Mason, Cowan—16.

Messrs Bole, Grant, Ladner and Fry had not come into the house up to the time the vote was taken.

GAME PROTECTION.

Mr. Anderson introduced a bill intituled "An Act to amend the 'Game Protection Act, 1887.'"

JAIL INSPECTION.

Mr. Anderson moved that a select committee be appointed, to consist of Messrs. Duck, Higgins, McLeese, Orr and the mover, to inquire into the condition and working of the Victoria Jail, with power to call for persons, books and papers, and to report to this house.

The debate was adjourned.

CARIBOO RAILWAY.

Mr. Mason asked is it the intention of the Government to take any further steps in the immediate future towards promoting the construction of a line of railway into Cariboo district?

Hon. Mr. Robson—The Government realizing the importance of the subject are giving it their earnest consideration.

CATTLE PROTECTION.

Mr. Semlin asked is it the intention of the Government to introduce a bill this session for protecting cattle from destruction by railways?

Hon. Mr. Davie replied that the Consolidated Railway Act of Canada makes provision for their protection.

THIRD READING.

The Bridges Protection Bill passed the third reading. The County Courts and Incorporation of Foreign Mining Companies bills were read a third time.

Hon. Mr. Vernon moved the second reading of the Cattle Ranges Bill which he said referred to the commons. The Cattle Range Protection Act was for the purpose of setting apart certain portions of land for grazing purposes, payment of five cents per head being collected from stock raisers. This reserve was made for the purpose of protecting the smaller owners from large purchasers of pasture land. The total amount allowed in any one place was 16,000 acres. A wealthy cattle owner might run 1000 head of cattle on these ranges and all the government received in taxes was $50. He thought the province should receive a greater amount than this. Cattle ranges adjacent to markets were more valuable than those which were remote.

Mr. Semlin said, in reference to the remarks of my honorable colleague, the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, I take exception to his opinion that grazing lands contiguous to the railways is of more value than lands lying more remote from the railways. I think on the contrary that land lying near the railways is of less pastoral value than lands remote from the railways and for this reason, that lands lying near the railways have been grazed off—and is of the really less value than the land lying more remote.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said the matter should originate from His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor at the recommendation of the Executive Council and be introduced from that source, and not be brought in by one of the members as has been done. Neither was it right that the rate of taxation should be discretionary with the government.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys said this was a most extraordinary power which it was proposed to place in the hands of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, namely, the power to impose a tax. It was taking out of the hands of the house one of its most important functions [hear, hear] and he trusted the honorable gentlemen would consider what they were doing before sanctioning such a measure. Why the Queen of England, with the sanction of her ministers, could not impose taxation without the consent of her legislators. This question of all other questions was the most important to the House.

Hon. Mr. Robson said there was just as much reason for expressing objections to the principle upon which the timber, mineral, or wild land taxes are imposed. The power placed in the hands of the government in these cases had never been found to be abused or to work injuriously.

Colonel Baker said cattle ranges in this country would be reduced to wilderness like they have been in the United States unless some protection were made for them. These ranges were a great source of wealth and should be preserved by limiting the number of cattle to each range.

Mr. Martin did not think the member for Kootenay quite understood the bill. He maintained that the tax was not a general one. The bill would be a check upon speculators.

Hon. Mr. Beaven, in explanation, said no tax was general. The wild land tax and personal property taxes could not be imposed unless a man owned wild land or personal property.

Mr. Orr said of the two principles involved in the bill one was to increase the charge so as to make the public land yield a revenue. This principle the House fully agreed to. [Hear, hear.] The second was the relinquishing of the right of the House to fix the rate of taxation by permitting the Governor in Council to levy taxes on any portion of the community. Even municipalities levied their own taxes instead of leaving the power in the hands of the government. The power to impose taxation and vote appropriations was one of the oldest and most cherished privileges of the representatives of the people. [Hear, hear.]

Mr. Grant could not see why a fixed rate could not be made. The effect of the bill would be simply to give the government the right to say what tax should be paid for the privilege granted to any individual.

Hon. Mr. Dunsmuir did not see why the opposition should make any objection to this bill. The government were not going to cinch any settler. Besides the opposition might be the government themselves soon and they could arrange matters to suit themselves.

Mr. McLeese said he did not think it would do any harm to adjourn the debate. He considered that there were already too great powers placed in the hands of the Government, and he was not in favor of adding to them. He moved the adjournment of the debate.

Seconded by Mr. Cowan.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys said there were two reasons why the bill should not pass. First, because it was improperly introduced; secondly, because it proposed to take the most important power out of the hands of the house. He was in favor of the kind of tax which the bill proposed, but the house should fix the rate of that tax. If such a proposition as this had been made in any other house the bill would have been immediately thrown out to the disgust and probably the disgrace of the introducer.

Hon. Mr. Davie said the bill proposed a sliding scale of taxation, and it was necessary for the government to have the power of imposing it.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said to place this power in the hands of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council was a dangerous proceeding, and he thought the bill should be withdrawn and framed to meet the views of members on both sides of the house.

Mr. Higgins hoped the introducer would see his way clear to accept the resolution and withdraw the bill. He had the utmost confidence in the ministry but he would like to know what effect the bill would have on the poor settler and whether it was calculated to crush him out to the advantage of the rich grazer, before voting on it.

Hon. Mr. Turner—You don't understand the bill.

Mr. Higgins—That is why I ask for an adjournment. I confess that I do not understand it.

Hon. Mr. Turner attempted to show that some hon. members were inconsistant because they had voted for similar measures in previous sessions.

Mr. Orr showed that the hon. gentleman was wrong.

Hon. Mr. Vernon said it was clear the member for Comox did not understand the bill.

Hon. Mr. Humphreys (forcibly)—Pshaw!

The hon. gentleman, continuing, endeavored to make his measure plain.

The debate was adjourned.

PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Grant to a question of privilege asked that the first report of the select committee on public accounts be placed on the orders of the day as the "majority report" because there was also a "minority report."

Mr. Speaker would like to hear the leader of the opposition before ruling on the point. Decision reserved.

Mr. Duck called attention to the fact that the minority report of the public accounts committee had been printed in THE TIMES as the committee's report. This was calculated to mislead and he hoped a correction would be made.

LAND REGISTRY.

Hon. Mr. Davie introduced a bill to further amend the "Land Registry Ordinance, 1870." Bill passed the second reading.

House then adjourned.

Funeral.

This morning, all that was mortal of Mr. John Pugh, was interred in Ross Bay cemetery. The deceased, who was comparatively, a young man, was a native of Aberdare, Glamorganshire, South Wales, and came to this province not quite a year ago, accompanied by his eldest son. Except for a somewhat severe cold, nothing was thought by his friends to ail him; but last Tuesday he took to his bed, and expired in less than two days after, of congestion of the lungs. His son, who was many miles out in the mountains, was informed in time to be present at the funeral, at which the Rev. Mr. Starr officiated. Mr. Thos. Storey superintended the funeral obsequies, and the pallbearers were: D McPhee, G W Kennedy, W E Osterhout and A D Whittier.

A COMING EVENT.

Both Men Confident and a Game Race Expected.

As the time for the race between Peterson and O'Connor draws near the general public take considerable interest in the event and are anxious to read articles showing the merits of their favorites. The match is for $4000 aside, all the profits of poolselling and an excursion to Alameda pier where the race is to be rowed. A great deal of money has been wagered in San Francisco and the friends of both parties in this city are wagering small sums on the event. Peterson's friends claim that he can beat any man in the world except Teemer, and O'Connor's friends think he can beat Peterson. The latter is a fast oarsman but his head is not the best in the world. If he gets away in good shape, makes a clear lead and is not pushed too hard at the turn he will win easily, for he has the necessary speed and staying powers but if he cannot shake off O'Connor in the first mile and a half he is liable to go to pieces. O'Connor is a cool-headed man, and is very game. He starts as fast as any man in the world, and will row hard for the first mile and a half, and may win by default. When two men row half a race at a top speed it is a question of gameness which will finish in the best shape. Neither man can improve his speed, and the struggle on Sunday next will be a test of gameness from the start to the finish.

THE MATSQUI DYKE.

What Delegate Hawkins Has to Say —A Fair, Honest Proposal.

Mr. A. Hawkins, of Matsqui, is in the city in connection with the dyking scheme. He takes exception to a few of the statements made in THE TIMES of last Saturday relative to the high water of 1882. The dyke broke in many places previous to the water reaching the height of the rise of 1876, which was the highest it had attained previous to 1882, then it was ten inches higher than that of 1876. He contends that the dyke was not constructed in accordance with the specifications, as can be attested by the reports furnished the government in 1880 by Messrs. Gore and Navarre. Mr. Hawkins is the delegate from the settlers, whose lands are affected by the scheme, to look after their interests. He says they are not hostile to the completion of the work. On the contrary, they are all anxious to have the scheme completed, and the lands reclaimed effectually in accordance with the original agreement with Mr. E. L. Derby, and embodied in the Sumas Dyking Act of 1878. The objection taken to the Act of 1883 is based on the fact that whilst it provides for the completion of the dyke, there is no guarantee to the settlers that their lands will be effectually reclaimed, as is required by the Act of 1878. So far as the rebuilding of the dyke is concerned, the settlers are willing this should be done, provided that in the event of any of their lands becoming overflowed, the area so covered with water shall be ascertained and exempted from any assessments being served under the Act of 1878. Mr. Hawkins contends that his proposals are so fair that once they are known to the members of the Assembly there should be no doubt as to their being accepted.

Correction.

In the report of the Council proceedings on Saturday evening a slight mistake was made in the report of the speech delivered by His Worship on the motion to dismiss Mr. Hendry. His Worship said it was questionable whether the Water Engineer could be dismissed until six month's notice was given from the 30th June next. Mr. Hendry has served for two months in this year without such notice. It was a question whether the dismissal would be legal if notice was given immediately and carried into effect six months from the present date. In Saturday night's report His Worship is credited with stating that Mr. Hendry could not be notified until the end of this year.
